ford Dinner—Delta Phi Ball.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Congregational courch gave a delightful little entertainment last night at Hammond hall. A cobweb party occupied their attention in the early part of the evening. In each ball of yarn was concealed a portion of a card, upon which had been written a quotation,—the lady and gentleman having the two halves were partners for the evening. Later a select musical program was given.

Was not "Teddy" that cut his throat. The suspicion graw and finally it was openly intermediate that Cooper had had a hand in the taking off of his employer. The sequel to the tragedy came yester day morning, when both Cooper and Mrs. Fawks were arrested on the charge of missioner Greenman, who set the examination for next Tuesday at 11 a.m., and Cooper's bond was fixed at $500. and upon returning, purchased a farm at Bountiful and settled down. It is Bountiful and settled down. It is said that about this time family lars became of frequent occurrence in the Fawks household and the neighbors soon became aware of the fact that "Teddy" and his wife were not living together happily. It was along about this time that Fawks employed a man named Hober Cooper to work about the piace, and it is alleged that he soon became quite intimate with Mrs. Fawks. This widened the breach, and three months ago Mr. and Mrs. Fawks ceased living together as husband and wife. The woman had Cooper to console her, but poor Teddy was all alone. His domestic troubles finally upset his mind, and finally the end came.

At an early hour last Tuesday morning the constable at Bountiful was aroused by
